

HOW TO CONQUER WALL STREET

CURRICULUM

Course:	How to Conquer Wall Street: An Introduction to Investing and Financial Planning
Course Description:	The course explains complex accounting principles and financial concepts. The course describes the 5 types of investments, how to select and monitor these investments, and how to buy and sell investments. Students will learn practical skills that will help them with personal finance and careers in accounting and finance.
Course package:	Lecture CD, information booklet, 13 lesson plans, 13 homework assignments, 4 tests, and a career planner
Duration:	2-3 weeks
Modules:	13 lessons (45-60 minutes each)
Students:	Students enrolled in secondary and post-secondary business, marketing, and technology courses
Prerequisites:	Basic math
Note:	Accounting, economics, and marketing courses are not required, but helpful.