

HOW TO CONQUER WALL STREET

STUDENT'S WORKBOOK

TRACK 2: COMMON STOCKS

Name _____

Date _____

Instructions: Review the lecture CD and information booklet to answer the questions.

SHORT ANSWER QUESTIONS:

1. How much can a person lose in the stock market?
2. Can a stockholder vote for someone in management?
3. What information are stockholders entitled to receive?
4. How does a stockholder earn profits?

PROBLEM 2.1: STOCK SALE

The investor purchases a stock at $10 per share. The company's board of directors annually declares $1 per share as dividends. Subsequently, the investor sells his stock for $15 per share three years after the initial purchase. What is the investor's total profits and monetary return?

Stock Purchase Price	$_____
Stock Sale Price	$_____
Total Stock Appreciation	$_____
Dividends	$_____
Investor's Total Profits	$_____
Investor's Total Monetary Return	_____%

HOW TO CONQUER WALL STREET

STUDENT'S WORKBOOK

PROBLEM 2.2: STOCK DIVIDEND

The board of directors decides to declare a 1-2 stock dividend instead of a cash dividend. Initially, the investor held 10 shares of common stock. Compute the investor's total shares.

NUMBER OF SHARES	STOCK DIVIDEND	NEW SHARES	TOTAL SHARES
_____	_____	_____	_____

PROBLEM 2.3: STOCK SPLIT

The board of directors decides to declare a 2-1 stock split. Initially, the investor held 10 shares. Compute the investor's total shares.

NUMBER OF SHARES	STOCK SPLIT	NEW SHARES	TOTAL SHARES
_____	_____	_____	_____